

Installation and configuration

The Installation section is one of the most important sections, intended for both advanced users and beginners. This section is full of tips on how to configure SAYMON to monitor your environment, starting with the server configuration to obtain the necessary data and ending with viewing data, configuring alerts, and remote commands that are executed in case of problems.

This section is full of advices of SAYMON installation for monitoring of your environment.

Server installation and configuration

Requirements for server installation:

The system can be installed on both hardware servers and virtual machines.

The recommended requirements for a server of the system are:

64-bit OS
CPU – 4 cores
RAM – 8 GB
HDD – 72 GB

- Server installation
- Server configuration
- SMS-notifications and Voice Call enabling
- Server log-files rotation
- Web interface configuration
- Data Import and Export

Agent installation and configuration

Requirements for agent installation:

The system can be installed on both hardware servers and virtual machines.

The recommended requirements for a agent of the system are:

OS with Java 6/7/8 support
CPU – 2 GHz single core
RAM – 1 GB
HDD – OS + 2 GB

- Autoinstallation
- Linux
- MacOS X
- Windows
- Agent configuration file
- Agent log-files configuration